BASKETBALL.

The Internationals lead the Commercial Basketball league, with the percentage of .714, the other three teams being tied with .429. Wednesday night the Internationals will play Bryan Bros. and the Wals company will play the Shelton-Paynes at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday night there will be a double header, one game between the Mesa girls and the High school girls, and the other between the teams representing the S. W. shops and the Y. M. C. A. The S. W. Y. game will be the first challenge game of the season for the City Challenge league trophy. The shop team will have an equal chance for winning, as in the recent practice game the "Y" just nosed out a victory by six points.

The gold medal contests between the Juniors and the Intermediates of the Y. M. C. A. are to be held Monday, December 19.

FIGHT STOPPED BECAUSE FIGHTERS WOULDN'T FIGHT. Oklahoma City, Okla., Dec. 14.—A scheduled 10 round bout between Monte Attell and Jeff O'Connell was stopped by the promoters at the end of the fifth round here last night and entrance money was refunded. The promoters refused to pay either fighter.

Attell was to have received 80 percent of the gross receipts. The fight was tame from start to finish, Attell getting a shade of the best of all exchanges.

Hising started in the first round and throughout the fight the spectators could not be controlled. Twice in the course of the fight promoter Tommy Elks, coming to the ringside, requested the referee to make the two men fight or get out of the ring.

BATTLING NELSON AT HIS N. M. RANCH

Tucuman, N. M., Dec. 14.—Batling Nelson has returned to his ranch in the northern part of this county, apparently none the worse for his encounter with Moran, in which battle he suffered his second defeat in a few months. He is with his brother, Henry Nelson, and it is rumored that he is considering money investments in this state. Nelson still believes that it was only luck that lost him both the battles with Volgaist and Moran, and believes that he again will make good in the ring, showing at least the gameness for which he is noted. He will spend the winter in this climate.

AT THE OAKLAND TRACK.

Oakland, Calif., Dec. 14.—Enfield gained a nose victory over Raleigh P. D. in the Rosinante handicap, the feature of the card at Emeryville Tuesday. A field of five went to the post and all broke well with the exception of Roy Junior, who got away badly. After Pledge of Lismore stopped, Enfield and Raleigh P. D. fought it out. Fine weather prevailed but the track was heavy.

"DOC" ROLLER DEFEATED.

New York, N. Y., Dec. 14.—Zhyzsko, the Pole, won two straight falls from Dr. B. P. Roller, of Seattle, in a wrestling match here last night, thus winning the bout. The first fall was secured by a bar lock in one hour, 13 minutes and 25 seconds, and the second fall by an arm roll in a little over 11 minutes.

FAVORITES WIN.

Pensacola, Fla., Dec. 14.—Favorites annexed five of Tuesday's purses and played havoc with the bookmakers' bank rolls. Chanute was backed from 15 to 1 to even.

TEST OF BLOOD AND BRAINS AT JUAREZ

McLemore Mare, Well Ridden, Wins Feature Event at Juarez.

Mare racing against horse and boy riding against boy, the one mile handicap was a test of blood and brains, in which Meadow, the McLemore mare, won from Helmet, the Keene horse, now owned by the Bradley stable. Helmet went to the post a strong favorite at 9 to 20, and was expected to go the long route in the lead at every post. But Meadow was too fit for the Helmet horse and outgamed him at the finish. Meadow wisely let Ocean Queen set the early pace up to the far turn, where Molesworth let her have her head and she went out in front, with Helmet a close second. Reid, the boy on Helmet, made his move too soon and hung badly when the critical time came. Ocean Queen finished third, after setting all of the early pace.

Another Bradley horse did win in the first race, when Orient Pearl went over the five and a half furlong route to a winning from a field of eight. The Pearl held a good position the way and came on to beat Salali, the favorite, in the finishing strides. Balala delayed too long, but was coming through fast at the end. Lena Lech hung it all over the others in the second race, but had to be extended to make it into harbor ahead of the rest. Flying Pearl hung behind Lena most of the way and was strongest of the two at the finish, but was not good enough to overtake the lead. Colinet, another Bradley stable performer, moved up from eighth to first in the third race, running over the field in the final effort. Chapultepec was leading at the three quarters, but was unable to keep the gait and surrendered the lead to Colinet after the field turned for home. Lucky Mose just got going at the head of the stretch and covered a lot of ground, but was outrun by the winner, who went away from the outside.

Napa Nick just breezed the final furlongs in the fifth race and was a winner by four lengths from Crossover. Napa Nick was never worse than second and took the lead on the far turn, romping away from the rest. Crossover was outrun in the early part of the race, but came on strong to make it a second place finish. Hart showed a lot of late speed, but could get no nearer than third. A field of old time favorites went to the post in the final race, a mile and one-sixteenth race for 3-year-olds and better. Barney Oldfield ran his race and won from Short Order and Himalaya by making his move at the right time. Barney moved up to first place at the stretch, after running easy in fourth up to the post. Short Order set all the pace and then hung onto second position gamely. Koepke devoted his time to Bon Ton, who was run into the ground, but Koepke had nothing left with which to finish the race.

BIG LEAGUE IN ANNUAL MEETING

Reelection of Lynch by Nationals and Schedule Adoption Principal Feature.

New York, N. Y., Dec. 14.—Both the National and American baseball leagues held annual meetings here today. There was little doubt of the reelection of Thomas L. Lynch to the presidency of the National, possibly for a three-year term. Ban Johnson was last year elected to the presidency of the American League for a 20 year term, and that league did not occupy more than two hours to perform its routine business. The one thing which gave promise of a discussion in both leagues was the new schedule plan, which Garry Herrman has advocated. He favored a schedule of 112 games for each league, which would carry the season to the middle of August, and then start a series of interleague games, 64 in all, each club thus playing 176 games between April 10 and October 15. The old world's championship is to be eliminated, it being calculated that the team winning the greatest number of games in a whole season should be deserving of the real world's championship title. President Ban Johnson says it is not probable that the American league will take kindly to the plan, for the next season at least.

Much Business Transacted.
The board of directors of the National league has administered what is considered a rebuke to president Lynch in the McMillan cases. President Charles Ebbetts of Brooklyn last season released McMillan to Rochester of the Eastern league, and several major league clubs complained that Ebbetts had violated a rule of organized baseball in failing to obtain waivers. President Lynch fined Ebbetts $500. The board has "remitted the fine without comment." Lynch refused to discuss the action.

The National league officially awarded its pennant for the last season to Chicago and decided to continue the pension payments to Mrs. Johnson, sister of Harry Pulliam, the league president, who, under heavy strain, ended his life a year and a half ago. The matter of pitcher Camnitz, who claimed a bonus of $1200 from Pittsburgh on what he said was a contract that he was to receive that amount if he did not touch liquor during the season, was laid over until the February meeting, so that Camnitz can appear personally.

Pittsburg asked for waivers on first baseman Jack Flynn and announced that if no offers were received he would be released unconditionally.

Detroit sold Henry Pernel, its only left-handed pitcher, to Oakland, of the Pacific Coast league.

It is pretty well established that Fred Tenny, former manager of the Boston Nationals, but more lately first baseman of the New York Nationals, will be appointed manager of the reorganized Boston National league team, negotiations for the sale of which are under way.

It was said that Fred Lake, present manager, whose contract has a year to run, will manage the St. Louis Americans through a deal made with Robert L. Hedges, owner. Lake declined to discuss the matter today, but it is understood announcement of the change will be made tomorrow.

WELL KNOWN BALL PLAYER ENDS LIFE WITH A REVOLVER.
Louisville, Ky., Dec. 14.—Dan D. McGinn, former captain and first baseman of the New York Nationals, committed suicide here yesterday.

McGinn was found in his room at Bosler's hotel at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon with a bullet hole over his heart and a revolver in his hand. He had been dead several hours.

McGinn's last season was with the Milwaukee team of the American association and it was understood efforts were being made to secure him for the Louisville team for next season.

Battling Nelson Is "All In"

Battling Nelson, "all in" during his recent battle with Owen Moran, the sturdy Englishman, at San Francisco. Nelson can be seen on the right guarding himself and just able to hang on. He was knocked out in the 11th round, which ended his career in the ring. This battle again proved that they "never come back."
